Message from Keith

Dear Friends

Last month we celebrated three 'Celebration Nights' for church members and a fourth for those associated with our organisations along with friends from the community. These nights provided a great opportunity for us to pause and give thanks for all that has been achieved and also to reflect on how our wonderful refurbished building can be used in the future.

Although we await with anticipation the Dedication of our refurbished building by the Moderator of the Church of Scotland on Sunday 18 December, it is great to be at the stage now of actually using the lovely spaces we have available to us. The organisations of our church family are already enjoying the new halls and the sanctuary is providing a fantastic home for our worship services.

The month of November is always important for the opportunity it provides for Remembrance. It continues to be essential that we pause for a moment to acknowledge with gratitude those who gave their lives to secure a more peaceful world. We also acknowledge the debt to those who survived past wars and yet carried with them the horror of the experiences they witnessed and endured.

While a more peaceful world moved a step closer as the result of these efforts, we recognise that today the world still struggles to be a place of peace for all.

Today, men and women from our Armed Forces remain in active service all across the world and these brave and courageous young men and women need our prayers now as much as those who have served before them.

The church is a place where we bring all this before the God who listens and continues to love.

Although the setting is a little different – within a sanctuary that is modern, light and welcoming – the Remembrance Sunday service remains an integral part of our Church life and worship and this year we continue with the tradition of honouring service men and women from the past and those of the present.

'We will remember them'.

God bless

Keith

Remembrance Sunday Prayer

Loving God, in a world where justice has not rolled down as waters nor righteousness as a mighty stream, where knowledge floods in, but there is only a trickle of wisdom, we pray for this Church.

Turn our efforts to good, so that as our understanding increases, our sense of responsibility will deepen and we will complete our time here having made the world more habitable and ourselves more humane.

We pray this, O God, in the power of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Blessing

Life ebbs and flows,
the beginning becomes the end,
the end becomes a new beginning.
May God bless us in our coming and our going.

Church Offering Plate Lamb and Flag denotes sacrifice

In St John' Gospel 1:29, John the Baptist on sighting Christ, exclaims "Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world".

The Lamb is Christ and the flag which the lamb is portrayed as carrying is of the patron saint of England, St George.

The combination of a lamb and the flag of St George was also the symbol for the Knights Templars.
